Dear Hiring Team at Bending Spoons,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the software engineering position at Bending Spoons. This role aligns perfectly with my aspirations, and I am eager to contribute to your mission of building one of the all-time great companies. Bending Spoons' commitment to innovation, growth, and ethical standards resonates deeply with me, making this my dream job.

My academic background in Computer Science and Engineering, coupled with practical experience in web and software development, positions me as a strong candidate. I have quickly mastered new technologies, such as achieving proficiency in Java Spring Boot within just two weeks and completing a backend project in 13 days. My experience with Vue.js, .NET, and mobile banking systems has honed my skills in backend and frontend development, making me well-suited for the varied technical challenges at Bending Spoons.

I am committed to meeting deadlines and ensuring the highest quality in my work. My portfolio, detailed in my CV, reflects my work ethic, technical expertise, and passion for software engineering. I thrive in collaborative environments and am eager to contribute to and learn from the talented teams at Bending Spoons. My quick learning ability, coupled with my drive and team spirit, ensures that I will quickly integrate into any team and contribute meaningfully from day one.

I am not just looking for a job; I am seeking a place where I can dedicate myself to helping the company grow and achieve greater heights. My dedication to Bending Spoons' success will be unwavering, and I am prepared to go above and beyond to make this company the best it can be. I am confident that my skills and determination make me the right candidate for this role, and I am eager to take on this challenge and contribute to the success of Bending Spoons while advancing my own professional growth.

Sincerely,

Sudipta Kumar Das
